THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

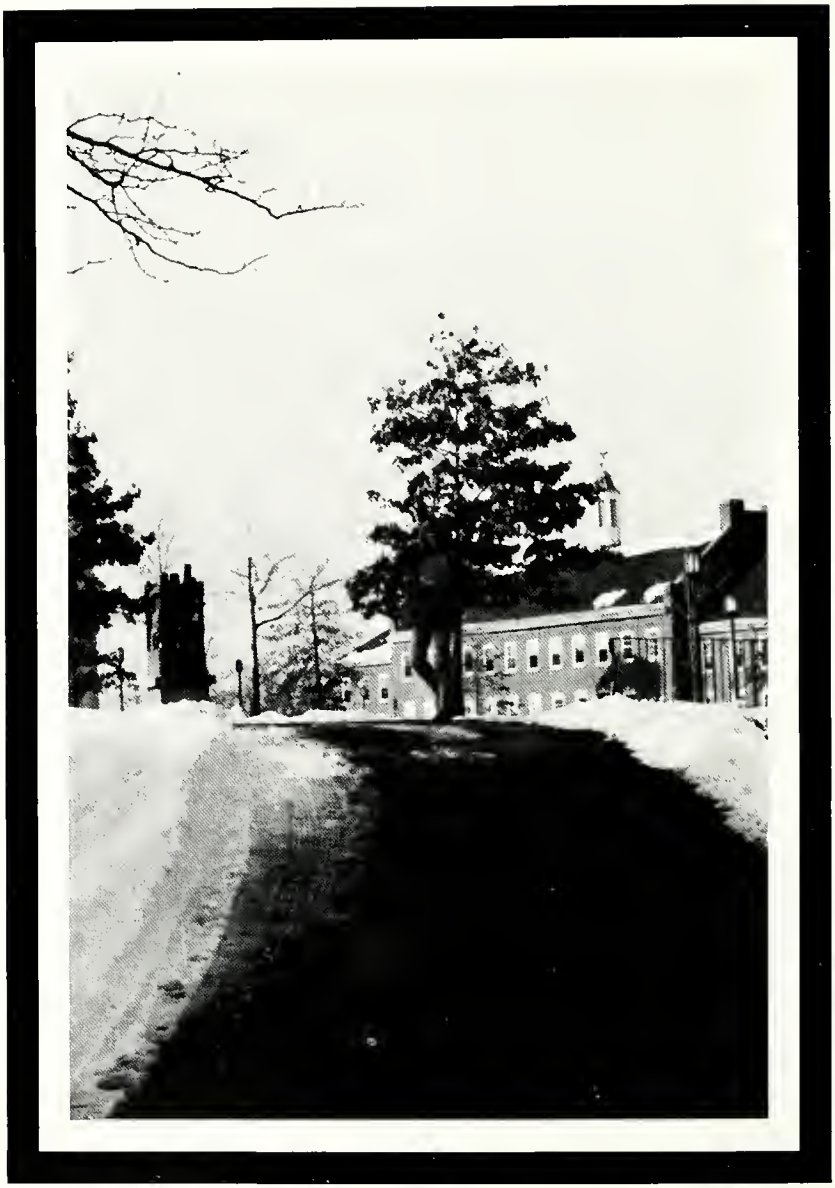
As Editor-in-Chief of the Cornerstone I would like to extend my appreciation to the following people for their help:


Ray Saeger for all the famous slides he donated to the Cornerstone; Clair McDonell for her layout design; The Public Relations Office for the pictures donated to the Cornerstone, and for their expertise putting the yearbook together. My thanks to Meredith Michael and Ana Armendarez for the constant support and the long hours they put into the coordinating of the yearbook. I would like to extend a special thanks to Ava Hom for her never-ending dedication to the Cornerstone, without her I could never have completed the job. Also I would like to thank Emily Cohen for her advice.
